If you have a matter due to be considered by the Cowes Town Council that affects a matter disclosed in your register of interest or your register of disclosable pecuniary interests then you must declare that interest before the matter is being discussed or when that interest becomes apparent.

If the matter relates to an interest in your register of pecuniary interests then you must take no part in its consideration and if it is being considered at a meeting of the Cowes Town Council you must leave the room for that item, other than to participate as a member of the public to express your views where public speaking is allowed under the Council's normal procedures. In such cases once you have participated as a member of the public you must leave the room during the remainder of the debate.

11. Personal Interests

A Member has a “personal interest” in an item of business where it relates to or is likely to affect any of the following bodies of which they are a member:

A Member shall disclose a “personal interest” at a meeting of the Town Council, committee or sub-committee, where the Member considers that interest to be relevant to an item of business being considered at that meeting. The disclosure shall be made at the commencement of the meeting, or when the interest becomes apparent, and shall be recorded in the minutes.

Disclosure of a personal interest will only affect the ability of the Members to participate in discussion or vote on the relevant item if it is a disclosable pecuniary interest; OR if the personal interest is so close (i.e. the matter directly affects a member of the family). In either case Members should exclude themselves from the meeting.

12. Register of Gifts and Hospitality

You must register with the Monitoring Officer/Clerk any gift or hospitality exceeding a value of £50 that you have been offered (whether accepted or not) as part of your role as a member of the Cowes Town Council.
